Presidents' Message

This month, we would like to address three of the seven purposes of the DKG Society.

Purpose Number Two: Honoring Women educators who have given distinctive services in the field of education

We thank and appreciate the dedication and perseverance of our working teachers as they prepare for the end of this school term. A big thank you also goes to the "big sisters" who have provided support in their classrooms.

Purpose Number Five: Endowing scholarships to aid outstanding women educators

This year, five new teachers will be honored at our June meeting with a $500 scholarship. Providing these scholarships can happen, thanks to the many philanthropic endeavors of our chapter.

Purpose Number Six: Stimulating the personal and professional growth of our members

This purpose is afforded to several of our members who will attend the DKG/California State Conference in May. We look forward to participating in professional and personal activities with fellow DKG members across the state. Attending members, please share your experiences with Ellen, to be included in our May newsletter.

Mark your calendar for June 2, our final meeting of the year, to be held at Bayonet Golf Club. We will remember Patty Cox, present new teacher scholarships, initiate two new DKG members and install the 2018-2020 Executive Board. Look for the Evite in May.

In the meantime, enjoy the rest of spring.

Fondly, Gayle and Suzanne

April Adventure Meeting

The DKG Asilomar event on April 5 was a huge success. Comfortable weather, 21 enthusiastic sisters, knowledgeable State Parks interpreter (Lisa Bradford), a ramble through some Julia Morgan buildings, and a scrumptious lunch at Crocker Dining Hall made for a day well spent!

SPECIAL THANKS to Committee members Joy Chandler, Sally Eastham, Kathryn Lawrence, Christine Ward, and Barbara Hughes for coordination of this event!

Thank you, too, to Neva Petersen for composing and sending out the Evite to all members.

Thanks,
Joy

The Committee members: Barbara Hughes, Chair Joy Chandler, Sallie Eastham, Kathryn Lawrence, and Christine Ward

Delta Lambda members, Barbara Sovereign, Charlene Lowery, Claudia Curry, State Parks Interpreter, Lisa Bradford, Camille, Liscinsky, and Kathy Knight chat before the tour of the Julia Morgan buildings.

Lisa Bradford tells about the beginnings of Asilomar to Delta Lambda members Wendy Banks, Pat Gotch, Katherine Knauf, Sally Eastham, Nancy Durein, Barbara Sovereign, Kathy Caves, and Katie Kelly.

In the Reception Hall, Lisa Bradford explains about the Arts and Crafts design that Julia Morgan embraced in designing Asilomar.

With my deepest sorrow I let you know my dearest friend and DKG sister, Patty Cox, passed away. She bravely battled her ALS and kept a positive attitude until the end. Although she had only been in Delta Lambda for a few years, she had gladly taken on the RIF program at King with Wendy Banks. Patty was a special lady and will be greatly missed by all who knew her.
