Presidents' Message

Dear DKG Sisters,

Can you believe another month has passed? We have all had to make difficult decisions about getting together with family and friends. We are heading into the holidays and facing even more choices of how to spend the holidays.

Our next meeting will give us a chance to get together to share time with friends, since we have allowed time for members to connect with one another during the meeting. We hope some of you will invite potential new members. We also will be honoring some of our sisters with longevity awards.

We wish you all a happy and healthy Thanksgiving. Most of all, we really look forward to seeing everyone at the Zoom meeting December 5th at 10 AM.

The two Nancys

RIF News

Marsha Leadingham & Stephenie Meroney

Our biggest RIF News is that Kathy Morgan has volunteered to co-chair the RIF distributions with Karen Crummey at Foothill. Thank you so much, Kathy. It is always so much more fun to have a RIF buddy when organizing distribution days. We will be ordering books (we're thinking positively) at the beginning of the year. We have permission to store the books at Ord Terrace thanks to their principal, Joe Sampson. Keep your fingers crossed that we can have RIF in the spring.

A Veteran Teacher's Classroom Tips to Avoid Burnout and Thrive
 NEW YORK— September 22, 2020—Morgan James' new release, Classroom Confidential: How I Survived 33 Years in a Public School Classroom...and You Can Too! by Victoria Lucido, is a wisdom-packed manual for new and struggling teachers. Classroom Confidential provides much-needed support to the often overworked, underappreciated educators who are shaping the nation's youth and future. Surveys have found that nearly 30% of all teachers leave the profession within their first five years of teaching. This can be attributed to the many hurdles educators face, from lack of funding and support, to stress of classroom management, to the struggle of finding work-life balance. Award-winning teacher Victoria Lucido not only outlasted this statistic, but she thrived for more than three decades as a teacher. She shares her secrets to success in Classroom Confidential. Victoria Lucido tells it like it is, giving educators the inside scoop on what they really need to know in order to make it as a teacher. She offers tips on classroom management, lesson planning, professionalism, fitting in with coworkers, and parent-teacher dynamics. Tens of thousands of new teachers enter the field every year. Classroom Confidential: How I Survived 33 Years in a Public School Classroom...and You Can Too! will provide ...new teachers each year with the tools they need to be confident and prepared to enjoy a long, happy career as an educator!

Aged with Time

Artist-scholar Jennifer Colby, Ph. D, presents a 40-year retrospective of paintings and art installations, exploring color and collage to create portals into time, place and culture. The artist uses layers of acrylic paint, embedded imagery, bold colors and textural elements to entice viewer's examination of the personal and the political. Over the decades, Dr. Colby's award-winning work has addressed themes of social justice, immigration, ecology, spirituality and community building, primarily through giving voice to women's stories.

Meeting Recap by Cathy Findley

Our DKG meeting of November 7 was jam-packed with lots of information presented by knowledgeable and creative Delta Lambda members. Demonstrations of distance learning activities were presented by:

Wendy Milligan sharing a Google Doc assignment - and she made us do it too.

Anne Congelton showed us her home set up and displayed several of the apps she uses with First Grade.

Jen Ortiz shared a fun PearDeck interactive slide.

Val Rivera played a FlipGrid assignment from one of her students and shared one of her lessons from Native American Heritage Month.

Faith Ringgold – Quilter and Painter
born 1930

Jazz Story series 1993

Sun Flowers Bee at Artes Series 1997

Rochelle Davis gave us a welcome Seventh Inning yoga stretch.

Linda Bynoe discussed the book that she has been researching filled with the stories and art of powerful Black Feminist Artists.

From the Harlem Renaissance through the Baby Boom Era: Black Feminist Artists as Revolutionaries

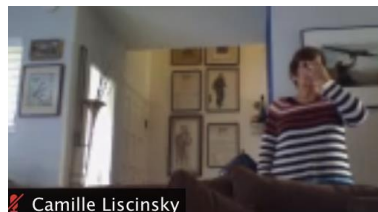

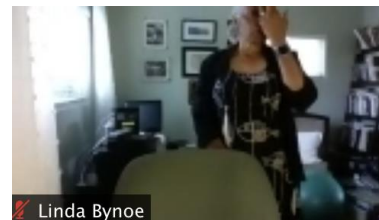

Presented by: Dr. Linda Turner Bynoe

Presented to: Delta Lambda Montrose Chapter

November 7th Meeting Recap Continued

Results of our poll:

- About 1 out of 3 members at the meeting were NOT wearing shoes.
- We were evenly split on getting together in a small (up to 10) outdoor masked gathering.
- I wonder what the next meeting will reveal?

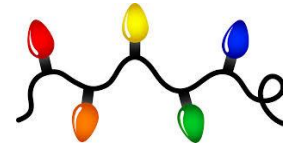

Holiday Meeting December 5, 2020 10AM

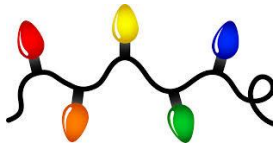

Come one, come all to our end of year ‘Zoom Party’!

There will be some opportunities for small-ish group socializing, some games, celebrating the 10, 20 and 30 year anniversaries of several of our members, and, of course, a mask giveaway.

Wanting to invite friends or prospective members? - This would be a good meeting. Just share the meeting info.

AND, object, relic or remembrance from one of your travels

You do not need to register in advance for this meeting, just follow the instructions in the red box - use computer, laptop, iPad, notebook, cell phone or rotary phone to connect.

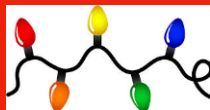

Interested in learning how to do a screen share for this meeting or for the future? The meeting will be open at 9:30 for directions and practice.
