Presidents' Message

While February gave us “roaring like a lion” weather, March came in like a lamb and provided a nice sunny day for Doug Hansen’s presentation on illustrating children’s books. Finger sandwiches, delicious desserts and Delta Lambda fellowship rounded out a perfect Saturday afternoon. April promises another engaging event for our members. Co-chairs, Cathy Caves and Bonnie Yoshinobu, have arranged for Dr. Stephen Brabeck to educate us on the world of olive oil, an especially intriguing topic for those of us who like to cook and are interested in good health.

Several of our sisters will attend the California State Conference in May. On June 6, we will end our 2016-2017 programs with a music medley by Michael Green, Interpretive Program Manager for Monterey State Historic Park, a great way to end our year.

We look forward to seeing you at our final events.

Gayle and Suzanne

T.H.A.T (Teachers Helping Another Teacher)

Diane Butler, T.H.A.T Coordinator, recently had a change of plans in her life and has moved to southern California. We need one of our members to take over her position for the 2017-2018 year. Diane did an excellent job of putting together the information needed for this position. This is a rewarding task in that we support our working teachers by providing them with a $100 check and a vase of roses to begin the school year. Some members also volunteer to serve as “big sisters” and provide assistance whenever needed for the working staff. The T.H.A.T. coordinator is also responsible for reminding members to register their volunteer hours on the California State Website.

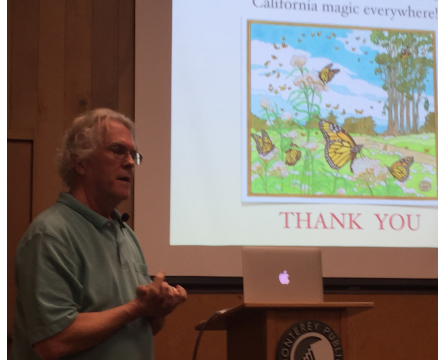

Please contact Gayle Paul or Suzanne Siegelman if you can help us with this important position.

March Voting Meeting

The March Voting Meeting also featured Doug Hansen the author and illustrator of several beautiful children's books. We met in the Community Room of the Monterey Public Library. Every one enjoyed yummy refreshments. Doug Hansen signed his books which were available for sale. Thanks to Claudia Coury and her Committee.

Doug Hansen signs a book for Haze Braudrick. Lynda Bynoe, Kathryn Knauf and Alice Stoll wait in line.

Doug Hansen completes his talk.

Co-president Gayle Paul opens the voting meeting.

Adrienne Jensen, Barbara Sovereign, and Kathryn Lawrence share in conversation.

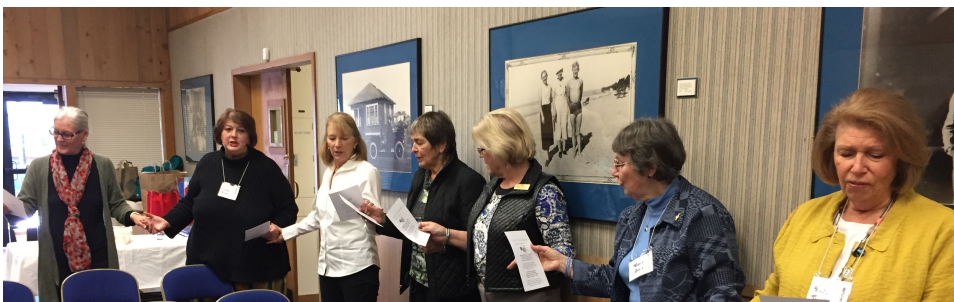

Pat Gotch and Susan Holm read one of Doug Hansen's books.

Marilyn Higbie and Ann Ostenson enjoy the refreshments

Nancy Hendersen, Christine Warde, and Kathy Caves chat while eating.

Cathrine Hendrick, Cathy Findley, Stephenie Meroney, Pat Gotch, Karen Crummey, Wendy Banks, and Kathy Caves join hands with all to sing the Delta Kappa Gamma Song.

Andrea Sayas holds one of Doug Hansen's books.

April Delta Lambda Event on Olive Oil

The next Delta Lambda meeting will be on Saturday, April 8, at 1:30 PM at the Monterey First Presbyterian Church. Our speaker, Dr. Stephen Brabeck, is coming from Quail and Olive in Carmel Valley to give us a presentation: Exploring the World of Olive Oil. After the presentation, there will be an olive oil tasting and refreshments in the form of an afternoon tea. The table decorations will be small birds' nests and colored eggs with olive branch greenery. There will be a $15.00 charge per person. Join us for this enjoyable, enlightening afternoon. Further questions or RSVPs: contact Cynthia Cardinale at 375-4981; cindy.cardinale21@gmail.com. Please RSVP by Tuesday, April 4.

DKG State Convention 2017

May 5-7

LAX Marriott

This year's DKG California Convention promises to be the best ever. The theme is Experience, Connect, Empower Now and there will be opportunities to do all three. Outstanding sessions for both personal and professional development are planned. The gallery will feature multiple examples of members' artistic talents and there will be musical performances and chances to sing in the choir. The Saturday luncheon and Sunday breakfast will feature dynamic keynote speakers and the Saturday banquet offers opportunities for members to be honored for distinguished service. In addition, University credit is available.
